ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Appreciation is expressed to those who contribute every day to ensuring that the environment in which the children of Iowa go to school is safe and that they grow up socially, emotionally, intellectually, and behaviorally healthy. Special appreciation is expressed to those who worked to plan and complete this comprehensive handbook for school safety. Their unwavering commitment to the development of partnerships among schools, students, their families, and communities to create a network of safety for the children and youth across our state caused an idea to become a reality. Now it is time to put the strategies contained within this Handbook into action.
